Neil Thornock

am strigat...am legat

The title of this work is a simple Romanian phrase. The words am strigat mean “I cried” or “I shouted.” The words am legat mean “I tied” and is closely related to the Latin word from which we get legato and ligature. It also forms the basis of the Romanian word for covenant, legământ. The two movements depict the joyous and loving relationship between God and man in the making of a covenant.
