Piano Sonata No. 4

Neil Thornock

This is a handwritten musical score for a piano sonata. The score is written on six systems of grand staves, each consisting of a treble and bass clef joined by a brace. The tempo is marked 'Moderately' and the dynamics include 'mp' (mezzo-piano) and '5' (quinta). The key signature is B-flat major, indicated by two flats (B-flat and E-flat) in the key signature. The time signature is 4/4. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, beams, slurs, and fingerings. The handwriting is in ink on a light-colored background.

The score is organized into six systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system begins with a treble staff containing a half note and a quarter note, followed by a bass staff with a half note and a quarter note. The second system continues the melody in the treble staff and the accompaniment in the bass staff. The third system shows a more complex melodic line in the treble staff with slurs and ties. The fourth system features a similar melodic structure. The fifth system includes a section with a '5' marking, possibly indicating a fifth finger or a specific fingering. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final cadence in both staves.
